“What’s the Big Deal? It’s Just a Talk”
Parent Education Workshop

“What’s the Big Deal? It’s Just a Talk”, is a hands on education workshop for parents and adults to help them have the conversation with their children about sexuality health education. Program topics include puberty education, good touch verses bad touch and how to address body issues. Parents will be engaged through direct scenarios and Q&A.

*minimum of 15 parents required *workshop is 60 minutes long

For more information, or to schedule a Parent Education Workshop, please contact:

James McCombs, MPH
Extension Program Coordinator
(773) 768-7779
jmccomb2@illinois.edu