What good is a local library?

Panel discussion moderated by Tina Hubert, Executive Director of the Lewis and Clark Library System, Edwardsville, Illinois.

Panel Members:
Dawn Bussey, Director, Glen Ellyn Public Library
Deanne Holshouser, Director, Edwardsville Public Library
Jeanne Hamilton, Director, Helen Mattes Library in Effingham
Julie Milavec, Director Plainfield Public Library
Karen Bersche, Director, Towanda District Library
Richard Sumrall, Director Lincoln Public Library District

This group of library directors has seen it all . . . . from the nondigital age to embracing current trends in information technology. For those of you who wonder if your library could be a good partner in economic development, education, community leadership, and literacy . . . well, you need to find out what your local library is up to!