

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
EXTENSION

Extending Knowledge Changing Lives

Extension Snapshot June 2013

Pond Workshop

Over 20 people attended a pond workshop north of Jacksonville on June 4.

Attendees heard information on pond management, fish stocking, aquatic plant management, and how oxygen levels change seasonally.

In addition, the Illinois Department of Natural Resources provided a pond shocking demonstration, discussed what to stock in ponds, and how to maintain good fishing populations.

For more information, contact Duane Friend at friend@illinois.edu

