This will be our final year for Heritage Arts. We have enjoyed 22 years of sharing the arts but are excited to announce some new ideas for the future. Thanks for being a loyal participant of Heritage Arts.
String Art Egg
Instructor: Becky Thomas
Learn how to make gorgeous string Easter eggs with embroidery thread.

Burlap Sunflower Wreath
Instructor: Bridget Zurcher
The latest fad in all-season wreaths seems to be burlap. Please bring your own mat and rotary cutter if possible.

Yo-Yo Flag on Canvas Bag
Instructor: Stephanie Vaupel
Enjoy embellishing your canvas bag with a Yo-Yo flag. Everyone needs a fancy canvas bag.

Bunny String Art Board
Instructor: Carrie Haug
String art is a fun, easy way to make a colorful picture by wrapping thread or embroidery floss around pins or nails. Take home this bunny just in time for Easter.

Mug Meals
Instructor: Carla Meyer
Mug Meals are an easy way to eat real food with little waiting and easy clean up. We will make some mixes to take home.

Homemade Potpourri
Instructor: Nancy Gmitro
Recipes are furnished, but participants will be encouraged to blend their own potpourri. You will take home at least two potpourris using lavender, rose petals, mint or pine as a base.

Milkweed Angel & Surprise
Instructor: Shirley Rees
You’ll love this angel made from local milkweed pods and a surprise milkweed art to go along with the angel.

Button Card Art
Instructor: Carrie Haug
Make these easy button art flower cards. Perfect for a spring craft or giving as a birthday or Mother’s Day card.
